ORIENTAL BAZAAR

NEW GOODS JUST RECEIVED BY LAST STEAMER

SIIKS .

PINEAPPLE and PONGEE in the piece. Silks of a variety of colors and weights.

LINEN CLOTHS in the piece, in a variety of colors. Finest goods ever shown in this market. Also embroidered linens, grass linens and table linens.

RATTAN GOODS-Such as lounging chairs, easy chairs and rockers, baskets and clothes hampers, trunks, tables, ladies' sewing baskets with stands and without, swinging cradles.

CHINESE INDIA INK of the finest quality prepaired especialy for fine artist's work. 4 to 8 oz. sizes.

GOODS PACKED AND SHIPPED TO ANY POINT.

66-72 King Street, corner of Smith. Branch Stores in Hongkong, Shanghai and Yokohoma

115 N. KING ST.

PHONE MAIN 289.

S. OZAKI

Hardware, Glassware, Crockery, Paints, Oils, Etc. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

ALSO OUR

Call and Inspect our Complete Lines.

Dry Goods, Fancy Goods and Gents' Furnishings.

Including some Novelties in Ties, Bows and Socks.

Hotel Street Store.

178 Hotel Street.

'Phone Main 197.

EPICUREAN

THE HIGHEST MARK FOR QUALITY has been attaiged by these GROCERIES. They are superior to any other to be had AT YOUR GROCER'S.

FRED PHILP & BRO. 629 King Street, Wright Building MoKerron's Boots,

AT SAN FRANCISCO PRICES.

MARNESS OF ALL KINDS ON HAND AND MADE TO ORDER.

Postoffice

Postoffice Postoffice Box 133.

California Calimyrna Figs

NOW ON SALE AT

OCCIDENTAL FRUIT STORE 250 a Box. 521 King Street.

Don't Delay--Buy Now! Closing Out Sale

Must get rid of our goods. Prices satisfactory.

Goo Kim, 116 Nuuanu St.

Barnard's Coffee

Your Crocer's 35c Pound

Fine Driving Horses Kona

"Alden Besse."

CLU8-Livery, Boarding

and Sales . . . 518 FORT STREET.

Stable Phone, 169 Main. Hack Stand, Phones 319 and 72. C. H. BELLINA.

C. Q. YEE HOP & CO.

And Grecery.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES. Beretania Street, corner Alakea. Phone Blue 2511.

coffee

The Orphanage Kena Coffee is still deliver promptly. Telephone No. 1652 White.

Hawaii Shinpo Sha

Y. SOGA, Editor.

Telephone Main 97. Smith St., above King. P. O. Box 907. closed to no one.

ICHELIEU! What better theme or title for a dramatist! What a name to conjure with. Who of us has not read and dreamed of Richelieu and drawn some picture of the man of iron, the fighting cardinal who, as his strength forsook his arm, wielded the farther reaching weapons of his brain, and with his mental armament did doughtier deeds than when his good hands carved a way through his enemics with the flashing falchion that his old age could hardly lift.

Richelieu, the fox, the dread and yet the hope of France, centering her destinies in one mighty brain, controlling her disasters, curbing her ambitions. Richelieu, of whom even the fearless D'Artagnan was afraid and Aramis acknowledged as a master. Richelieu, who played with countries as his chessboard, nobles as his pawns and protect-ed the king, allowed to move but one square at a time, only because the king's safety represented the safety of his country and meant the game. One can imagine Warde, or any of our great actors, born with the spirit of remanticism rampant in their blood, devouring as a boy his "Three Musketeers" and the succeeding tales of their adventures, reading other stories of the days of Richelieu and investing the cardinal minister of France with the dread that D'Artagnan felt, the admiration for his subtletry, the recogni-tion of his generosity. How eagerly, when the stage was adopted as his pro-fession, must Warde, or the others, have looked forward to the opportunity of playing for a few hours the role of Richelleu, of being for a while the representative of the most picturesque. perhaps the most powerful, man of historic times. Greater than Wolsey, because living in a more enlightened age, a prelate fully cognizant of the supreme power of the supernatural and its domination over the hardiest spirits, but after all a man. "Go, monk! Leave patience to the saints!" Lytton's play is eminently theatrical, calculated for stage presentation. Selg-ing one of the many episodes in the great cardinal's life when the enemies of the minister thought they had trapped the fox at last, only to account themselves foolish geese ready for the plucking in the hour of their supposed triumph, Lytton has given a chance for the interpreter to show in skillful tech-nique the complexity that made the greatness of the wearer of the red robe which, while invested with terror tinged with its own bloody hue, to many was a warm refuge to the few. With Warde's impersonation, the first act discloses many subtleties. First the old man, always the old man, throughout the play. His love of flattery from his associates, which he yet adjudged at its real value. His knowledge of humanity that gauging a man or woman to the very standard was yet tinged with the breath of suspicion constantly engendered by his office and its dealings with the intrigues of state.

The romanticism of the man, his love of beauty, of poetry, of chivalry, hi memories of his youth when "Even I have loved." His wily delight in seeing his opponent make the very move his own step had forestalled, and then in supreme moments the greatness of man, his majesty dwarfing the king by natal accident, who reigned through him, and left to his own reources, showed like a marionette behind the scenes when the strings that make it live have slackened.

It has been urged that Richelieu's triumph in Lytton's play was gained not by his efforts but by those of the Francois, who saved the day when the master spirit drooped baffled and impotent. Warde's masterful interpretation makes the answer clear. was the cardinal who, with his "no such ward as fail," the unbaring of his own spirit, inspired the stripling to manhood and sent him forth mighty with his own magnetism. Therein lay Richelieu's greatness and the secret of his success. Unlike his successor, Mazarin, the crafty and penurious, Richelleu's own intense manliness, strung with the full gamut of the passions subdued but ready to respond, made him truly great, stopped the murderbent De Maupras in the flash of his blade, and awed the fawning courtiers watching, hoping, intriguing for his

There are few of us who, when our definitions of the stage are analyzed. do not associate it with sword, scarf, teathers, silks, satins and high boots That is the real success of the modern craze for medievalism. Richelieu appeals to these tastes and was in con equence enjoyed to the full last night, proving, perhaps, to the many, the most enjoyable bill of the season.

Warde gave us the presentment of Richelieu on Saturday, a characterization that satisfied all who had formed preconceived ideas of the great cardinal. In the curse scene, rising to the heights, towering above Baradas until e dwarfed him, he reached the heights of dramatic force and realism. Richelieu is a living entity now to those wh formerly had merely read of him.

The Warde Season.

The last performances of Mr. Frederick Warde begin tomorrow night, when "Damon and Pythias" will be presented. This old-time popular play. which is rarely seen nowadays, was first produced at the Covent Garden Theater, London, May 28, 1821. The great English actor, Macready, was the original Damon, and Charles Kemble, another noted actor played Pythias. The late Edwin Forrest popularized it in this country. Mr. Warde has pre-sented the play many times, and being identified with that noble order, the in this country. Mr. Warde has pre-Knights of Pythias, it has always been a pleasure for him to produce it. It will receive full justice at Mr. Warde's hands this time in Honolulu. Mr. Warde, of course, plays Damon, Mr. Herman Ptyhias, Miss Ashton Calthurna, and Miss Trescott Hermion, On Wednesday night, "Macbeth," with Mr. Warde in the title role, Mr. Herman Macduff. Mr. Johnstone Barquo, and sold for the benefit of the Kona Or- Miss Trescott Lady Macbeth. For phanage. Mrs. C. A. Blaisdell of 1271 Thursday -night, "The Mountebank" Beretania avenue will all orders and will be repeated. Seats are now ready for all the remaining performances at Wall, Nichols Co.

Mr. Warde's Lecture.

THE PIONEER JAPANESE PRINT- the opera house this afternoon at 3. ing office. The publisher of Hawaii has a purpose to encourage and sim-Shinpo, the only daily Japanese paper plify the study of Shakespeare. Mr. KAHIKINUI MEAT BARKET published in the Territory of Hawaii. Warde had been invited to address four C. SHIOZAWA, Proprietor, of the leading schools of this city and, owing to his health and the strain upon him here, thought best to substitute a of the Trustees, No. 404 Judd Building. single lecture at the opera house. To Editorial and Printing Office-1930 this everyone is invited. The doors are

Advertising New Goods. Some Choice New Goods That cannot fail to Please

We will be pleased to see every lady in town at our store this week to look at our New Goods, whether they wish to buy or not, and we will take a great deal of pleasure ant pride in showing them about the different departments. Especially attractive is our new stock of Linens, Lawns, Linen, Chambray, etc., for

Warm Weather Garments

Curtain Department. Elegant new stock just opened of net curtains with ruffles, newest designs; prices $3 50, $4.50, $5 per pair.

Ladies' Shirt Waists

All the latest styles of waists -white and coloredfull line of sizes from 32 to 44. Most of the stock consists of the "Unique" and "Derby" brands which are the most reliable manufactured.

Ladies' Blouse Suits Excellent fitting washable bleuse suits, tailor made; well finished; latest material and of course fast colors. Suits cost a great deal less than you could have them made for.

Ladies' Muslin Underwear

Entire new line of Ladies' Skirts and Corset Covers. Ours is no half-hearted show of these goods, and we sell at prices that defy competition.

Embroidery Galloons

Just opened-a large invoice of the latest embroidery galoons, applique insertions and a handsome stock of the latest Beadings.

New Stock of Warm Weather Materials

Direct importations from German and English looms of exquisite materials.

Pure Linen

In plain colors and fancy stripes, Mercerized Lappets

The very latest in all colors.

Imported Madras Correct material for fadies' waists and gentlemen's shirts.

Linen Chambray Very fine assortment in all colors and excellent summer materials are our Scotch Batistes Another dainty new importation is a full line of Mouslin de Soie.

Boy's Linen Knee Pants

Just 1500 pairs of boys' linen knee pants. We guarantee them to be pure linen-net union. This week 45c Pair.

Infant's and Children's Hats and

Silk caps, wash caps, lawn hats, white Milan straw sailor hats, and a full line of children's dresses, just received and now on sale.

Grass Linen

Three grades-and in Pink, Light Blue and White.

Pure Linen Lawns

English manufacture-12-yard pieces, 36 to 38 inches wide. Quality the finest.

$3.50 Per Piece

Organdies

White and colored, and an exceptionally beautiful stock of INDIA LINON AND VICTORIA LAWN.

40 inches in width and of finest weave.

Let u. See Everybody This Week to Inspect the New Goods.

PACIFIC IMPORT CO.

PROGRESS BLOCK, FORT STREET

SATURDAY COURT CULLINGS

The Williams Boys Sent to Prison for Two and Four Years.

The Williams boys, convicted of larceny in the first degree, were sentenced by Judge Robinson Saturday. Edgar, whom the evidence showed used a pistol at the time of the commission of small; they will be delivered without the crime, was given a four years' sen-extra charge. tence, and Robert was sent to prison for two years. The motion for a new trial made by Attorney Reynolds was overruled in both cases.

Depositions have been received from London in the Marconi suit against F. J. Cross, and from California in the estates of M. Louisson and Susan Doug-guilty of larceny by a jury in the Cir- of May, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m. cult Court Saturday and will be sen- ways and means to continue the busitenced today.

Judge Gear has appointed Manuahi 6168

as administrator of the estate of Pila

A divorce was granted Saturday by Judge Gear to Bertha Hough from Lu- By the Alameda, the following goods: ther Hough, on the ground of deser-The wife is given the custody of the minor children.

FLEUR-DE-LIS Ice Cream Parlors

Alakea St., between King and Hotel. G. E. MORSE & COMPANY. PHONE BLUE 1801.

Special attention given to supplying Receptions, Parties, Weddings and Church Gatherings.

SPECIAL MEETING STAR SODA WORKS, LTD.

A SPECIAL MEETING OF THE stockholders of the Star Soda Works, Ltd., will be held in Waverley Hall, Ah Wo and Nishiyana were found Honolulu, on Wednesday, the 21st day The object of the meeting is to devise

C. J. M'CARTHY,

Just Received

H. O. Roll Oats

H. O. Hominy H. O. Holgrane H. O. Bis-Kit H. O. Buck Wheat

also a fancy lot of candy.

J. E. GOEAS, Beretania and Emma Sts.-Groceries.

A. C. Lovekin

Stock and Bond Broker.

Real Estate and Insurance. 403 Judd Building.

The Pacific Hotel

1182 Union St., Opp. Pacific Club. Newly furnished Rooms, mosquito-proof, electric lights, hot and cold wa-ter. First-class Table Board. MRS. HANA, Proprietor.

ECOLLEGE HILLS

LOTS FOR SALE.

The Trustees of the Oahu College offer for sale at very low prices, and on

VERY FAVORABLE TERMS

(One-third cash; one-third one year; one-third two years' time, with interest at 6 per cent per annum) some very choice lots at Coilege Hills. The

RAPID TRANSIT

Company performs a twenty minute service through the property; the College has provided a splendid and abundant supply of artesian water reaching over the entire tract, and the charges are reasonable. This is

A MOST HEALTHY LOCATION

and is entirely free from objectionable surroundings. No saloons. wash houses, ivery stables, poi shops and other nuisances of like character are allowed, and by all means is the most attractive suburban district near Honolulu.

Persons desiring lots in this locality will be able to secure full particulars in regard to these lots by applying to Mr. P. C. JONES or Mr. JONATHAN SHAW at the office

P. C. JONES, Treasurer.